

Talks Service

PACT for Autism are delighted to offer a 'Talks Service' as part of our on-going plans to deliver high quality and inspirational Autism Talks to both parents and professionals. Due to the increased demand on our services and several requests from schools, business and various organisations for Autism talks, PACT are able to offer this service which can be tailored to your specific needs.

Deb Hannam has a wealth of experience through her own personal journey as mother of a young man with Autism. Deb is the wife of Steve Hannam (aka Danson Thunderbolt) the writer of the Blogs 'Living with Luke' and is a founder member of PACT for Autism (formerly known as PACT Harlow). She has continued to support PACT over many years working with both parents and professionals alike and by sharing her own personal experiences and extensive knowledge, has enabled those people to have a unique insight and understanding of autism.

Our aim is to raise awareness of the difficulties faced by our children and adults with Autism and to enable those in a supporting role to recognise and understand the key areas of difficulty experienced by individuals on the autistic spectrum.

For more information about the new service or for general enquiries, please contact Deb directly: debbieh@pactforautism.org.uk

Parent Helpline: 07837 606089 | Office Admin: 01279 430300
Email: info@pactforautism.org.uk | www.pactforautism.org.uk
www.pactforautism.org.uk/forum

PACT for Autism, Office 50, Latton Bush Centre, Harlow. CM18 7BL
PACT for Autism is a registered charity (No. 1148170)

